WHY DON'T PEOPLE PAY WHAT THEY OWE US

FOR

Merchandize and Guano.

THE Merchant has to pay for his purchases of Goods promptly. He also has to pay the Farmer promptly for his Cotton and other produce. Will the people not, therefore, DO AS THEY ARE DONE BY—come forward and pay what they owe us. It is to the interest and duty of people to pay their debts. May we not, therefore, expect EVERYBODY to come forward by the First of January, 1875, and pay us up all they owe; and when they go TO DIE, let them DIE EASY and with a CLEAR CONSCIENCE. WE NEED OUR MONEY.
We have a large STOCK OF GOODS on hand for sale. We allow high prices for Cotton, GINS, and many other things.

OFFICE OF O. SACKETT, Druggist and Medicines,
NEW ALBANY, IND., April 10, 1874.

Dr. J. S. Pemberton, Atlanta, Ga.—DEAR SIR: I have received your circulars, and in consequence of the distribution, I have sold about six dozen Globe Flower Syrup in the last few weeks. The Globe Flower Syrup is gaining great celebrity. I recommended it in two cases of consumption. One case was bed-fast; had not laid on but one side for two years; hemorrhages almost every day; much emaciated, and expected to die. He has taken six bottles of Globe Flower Syrup; his troubles are all gone, except prostration, which is rapidly improving. He will certainly get well. The other case is similar, with same good results. I can send you many testimonials if you want them.
Yours truly
